I called them about the puppy class. They said izzy can go in either the puppy or beginner class cause they are basically the same thing. They just separate them cause the puppy is for dogs 10weeks to 5months and people usually like their smaller breed dogs to go in that class but he said she would be fine in either. The beginner is 5months to adult dogs with no training. They have classes starting every weekend through april. The times vary depending on if it's a sat or sun from 11-4pm. The class is 1hr long and costs $119 and is 10 weeks long
